Summer Safety in Walden

School is out for the summer! PLEASE be mindful of children out and about as they are playing, walking, or biking and crossing the streets. There are several things we can all do such as anticipating that children will not always be watching out, so we must be aware!

We can control our speed on the roadways and stop and let children cross. As you escape the heat by going to the Yacht Club Pool, practice safety at the pool and lake by watching out for each other and following posted rules and guidelines. Wishing everyone a great fun-filled summer!

NO Individual Fireworks Allowed

As you prepare to participate in the July 4th activities next month, please keep in mind that the display or shooting off fireworks or firecrackers is not allowed in Walden. Article III, Section 7 Annoyance or Nuisance, states "No noxious or offensive activity shall be carried on upon any lot nor shall anything be done thereon which may become an annoyance to the neighborhood. The display or shooting of firearms, fireworks, or firecrackers is expressly forbidden." Thank you in advance for your compliance.

Independence Day Celebrations

Tuesday, July 4, there will be an Independence Day parade starting at the Racquet Center at 9:30AM. Every Walden resident is invited to be part of the parade. If you would like to participate in the parade, please arrive at 8:30AM to the Racquet Center the day of the parade and check in with one of our volunteers.

Each year we honor a person or group by naming them our Grand Marshall. This year we are honoring Mick Lay. Read all about his contributions to our community inside this issue.

LADIES ASSOCIATION of WALDEN

Dear Friends,

Where did the year go? Just yesterday I was welcoming you back after a summer break. Now I'm about to wish you a happy summer! Serving you as President this past year has been a wonderful experience! This club is filled with strong, dedicated, fun women, and it has been a blessing to share meetings, decision-making, lunch, special interest groups, and outings with so many of you. This past year your Board of Directors committed to a Fun & Fellowship theme. I hope you have seen this attitude in practice because your officers and chairmen have worked diligently to ensure that our club's activities and luncheons run smoothly. We have a revamped monthly newsletter, a new super-expanded website, a new reservation system, a refreshed Facebook page, updated bylaws, revived and renewed small groups and outings, a monthly President's Table, dozens of new members, and the inclusion of so many women in our various activities! I am especially grateful for the dedication and involvement of our officers as well as so many, many members who give generously of their time! These women are the reason our Club enjoyed such a successful year. Thank you to our Board of Directors:

Of course, without your continued support, we would not have been able to accomplish so much - so please accept my thanks as well! What a successful year we had! Thank you to so many who have had such kind words to say to me during my tenure. It helped me so much. Thank you for allowing me to serve you as President this year.

Also, a big thank you to our Nominating Committee who provided us with this slate of officers for 2023-2024: Vice President Diana White; Secretary Stephanie Johnson; Treasurer Kim Nabors. Additionally, we had a nomination from the floor at our May meeting: Sharon Cason-Fenske for Vice President. In June, we will vote for the uncontested offices by voice and have a written election/ballot election for Vice President. Per our bylaws, the Parliamentarian is in charge of the election. Because Parliamentarian Laura Archibald is out-of-state until November the Executive Committee (per bylaw Article V, Section 4) has asked the very capable and experienced former President Carol Maak to step in.

I feel blessed that I met so many of you this year, and I look forward to spending more time with you in the future. Have a SAFE & FANTASTIC SUMMER!

Warm regards,

Susan Johnson, LAW President

PRESENTING WALDEN'S 2023 INDEPENDENCE DAY

GRAND MARSHALL

Mr. Mick Lay

If you aren't familiar with the Walden Closet, let me tell you about this wonderful amenity that was started by the Ladies Association of Walden and made available to all Walden residents. It has been around for many years. Betty Lay and Kay Cain took over management of the Closet in July 2011.

The Closet served and continues to serve this community meeting the essentials of those who need medical & ADA items (wheelchairs, walkers, shower chairs, etc.) as well as items needed on a temporary basis for visiting grandchildren (baby cribs, playpens, highchairs, etc.). And all at no cost!

Mick Lay and his wife, Betty, moved to Walden in 2008. While Betty served the community in many ways, she began urging her husband, Mick, to search for areas that he could volunteer serving the Walden community. He noticed how she struggled with the heavy equipment and so he volunteered to be her muscles. And after Betty's passing in 2016 he continues to manage Walden's Closet in her honor.

He gives of his personal time to meet anyone in the community in need of these items. A truly selfless and caring person, and well deserving of this honor as our 2023 Fourth of July Parade Grand Marshall!

Please join us as we honor Mick Lay for his contributions to our community!

IN THE garden

By Margie Barlow
Montgomery County Master Gardener (2002)
MargieLBarlow@gmail.com

It's official: school is out and it's summertime. We have had adequate rain showers here and there and everything is greening up nicely. I finally broke down the middle of May and reattached my backflow preventer to my sprinkler system so it's ready to go when I need to water. I think this might be the longest I've gone without running my sprinkler system.

Your yard should be greening up and hopefully not full of weeds. If you do have some weeds, you can spot treat them with Bonide weed beater or plant sedge depending on the type of weeds you have. Remember that in May or early June you are to apply your pre-emergent herbicide. I personally use Barricade but Dimension or Pendimethalin are also good products to use. You also need to apply a slow-release fertilizer. I use Nitro Phos 19-4-10 but you can also apply 19-5-9, 18-4-6 or 15-5-10.

Have you noticed that the hummingbirds have arrived? Make sure you keep your feeders filled and clean. I've also bought a feeder that attracts Orioles and other birds. You slice an orange and attach it to the bottom prongs and then put bird berry jelly in the dish. I just love working in my yard and seeing all the butterflies and birds.

Have you thought about planting things that the birds love? August and September are months of bird migration throughout Texas.

If we plant for them, we can observe the ruby-throated hummingbird. Literally thousands of our smallest birds will migrate through our area in route to wintering grounds in Mexico and Central America. When these birds arrive in Texas, they are having to really bulk up to make the journey across the gulf to get to their final destination. There is no stopping off point so the more we plant for them the better off they will be. Remember these birds are nectar feeders, using a variety of flowers. There is some debate, but red-orange tubular-shaped flowers may be their favored flower type.

I recommend native Texas plants such as cardinal flower and Turks cap. Of course, the deer like Turks cap also but if you are lucky enough to have a fenced yard it will grow in sun or shade. Flame acanthus is another good choice for sun or shade and any salvia or sage of any color are also excellent choices.

All of these plants are in flower during the fall migration. You can also find a list of other native plants by going to www.npsot.org/houston and click on suggested plants. If you aren't into the plants, then make sure that when you mix up your food you use one cup of white sugar dissolved in four cups of warm water. Allow the mixture to cool before use. Using more sugar or adding red dye to the solution is not recommended.

Last month I had two pictures in my article, my angel trumpet tree and Mexican bush sage. I wanted to show you what a month did to these plants, and I also added my purple salvia. I just love the colors on these plants and remember, they will bloom darn near twelve months out of the year.

Tip of the Month:

Don't be afraid of pruning. Lack of sufficient pruning results in cramped conditions and impeded beauty in your garden. Check your timing, monitor your plants' growth patterns, and keep your tools sharp.

HOW TO AVOID PROBATE OF A WILL

Assuming a person has a Will providing for distribution of one's estate after death, by taking a few basic self-help low or no-cost steps while alive, the surviving family may be spared the greater expense and effort of probating the Will.

1. Bank and other financial accounts - set up the account(s) in one of the following ways:

- a. Joint ownership with a spouse or other person, with right of survivorship.
- b. Sole ownership with a "payable on death" (POD) provision; or
- c. Sole ownership with a "designated beneficiary." Each of these is a bit different but consult with your banker to discuss how these differ and are established.

2. All titled property such as autos, trucks, R.S., trailers, boats, motors, trailers - set up title jointly with another person, and check off the box for "right of survivorship." Upon death of one owner, full title passes to the surviving owner. For about $15 per, this can be set up with the tax assessor's office, the state agency that handles title transfers for these assets.

3. Real estate - prepare a Transfer on Death Deed (TODD). This document designates the person(s) who you want to receive your interest in real estate. A TODD is signed and recorded now with the County Clerk but becomes effective only at time of death. Recording the document with the county clerk is required for the document to be legally effective. It is revocable while the grantor is alive.

4. Personal assets such furniture, jewelry, personal possessions, guns, collectibles - leave a memorandum stating whom you want to receive a certain item or affix a tab of some form on an item stating whom you want to receive that particular item. While these methods are not legally binding, it is hoped and trusted that your family will honor your wishes

5. Establish a trust - this is essentially a contract whereby a person establishes this legal entity to own, manage, and distribute one's assets through a trustee at a later designated time. Usually, the person establishing the trust serves as trustee, while retaining all benefits of the assets during one's lifetime, but then designating the person or persons to receive the benefits and assets following the death of the person who established the trust.

Take Aways:

- 1. Depending on the type of assets one owns, these techniques provide methods for passing of the asset(s) upon one's death, therefore no court involvement is necessary to effect such transfers.
- 2. Several of the various techniques can be accomplished without the assistance of an attorney, although it would be prudent to consult with an attorney for use of a TODD or trust.
- 3. Plan and implement the techniques while you are able to do so.

Red, White and Blue Salute to America! Don't forget, doors will open at 10:45AM so you can get your ballots for the election. Picture a band of young folks ages 6-18 playing tenor banjos and performing a wide variety of music from oldies-goldies and gospel tunes to smooth flowing waltzes and pops. This is the All-Star Banjo Band, home based in Sagemont Church in Houston, TX, led by Buddy Griffin. Buddy, himself, is a nationally known banjo performer and was inducted into the hall of Fame and Banjo Museum in Guthrie, OK, in both 2002 and 2005 in recognition of his work in education and instruction. Come and let the music move you while wearing your red, white, and blue! These young folk have played at Disney World and entertained many. "The Hot Shots" of Houston, as they are known, are very impressive and make everyone who listens to them very happy. Under the tutelage of their mentor, Buddy Griffin, they are true entertainers in every sense of the way! March on, young men, and make us all want to get up and dance and tap our toes! See you on Friday, June 2, for our last LAW luncheon of the year! Let's celebrate!
